Professional Services

WE FOCUS ON YOUR ACCOUNTING NEEDS SO YOU CAN FOCUS ON YOUR CLIENTS

As a professional services firm, Johnson O'Connor understands that your clients' needs come first – and that is your primary focus. When you become our client, we'll put the focus on you so that you can reduce the time you spend on accounting processes. We take a professional, yet people-centered approach to accounting services to help professional services companies ensure compliance with industry regulations, reduce tax liabilities, navigate mergers and acquisitions, and more.

In addition, our experienced professionals will help you stay on top of changing legislation, regulations, and financial trends that can have an impact on your business – and then provide proactive business guidance in making the best financial decisions to help your business grow and prosper.

Our list of professional services clients include:

- Law firms
- Architects
- Engineers
- Public relations firms
- Marketing and advertising firms
- Information technology firms
- Management companies

We streamline business processes for professional service providers with services for:

- Tax planning and compliance
- Assurance and accounting services
- Transaction advisory services
- Financial management
- Merger and acquisition assistance
- Outsourced accounting services
