> My favorite vacation spot is Hawaii. My wife and I went for our honeymoon and liked it so much we went back the following year.

Aaron joined the firm in July 2022 as a Manager in the Tax Department. He has over twelve years in public accounting with a focus in real estate, private clients and high net worth individuals. Aaron also has experience with the acquisition and sale of properties with real estate partnerships and LLCs.

Outside The Office

Aaron spends his time outside the office with his wife and son and their dog. He loves going on adventures with his three year old.
