

Abbigail Cocciardi

SUPERVISOR

 781.914.3317

 a.cocciardi@johnsonoconnor.com

“ My favorite vacation spot is anywhere with a sunny beach, warm water, and a lounge chair with my name on it.

Abbigail began her career in public accounting when she joined the firm in 2010, where she performed attest, tax, and consulting services to a variety of clients. In December of 2018, Abbigail transitioned into a new role where she now works as a supervisor in the client accounting services department (CAS). Her main role is supporting the CAS department with the implementation of new clients, monthly reporting, and assisting account associates.

Outside The Office

Abbigail resides in Danvers, MA, with her husband, three children, and dog Nina. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, cooking, reading a good book, and traveling to new places.

Education

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with concentrations in accounting and economics from Nichols College.

Professional Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accounting
- Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants

RELATED SERVICES

Accounting & Bookkeeping