“My father has been the biggest influence in my life. He lives his life by one simple rule, “There is no substitute for character.” If you have that, everything else falls into place.

Dorothy has over 30 years of experience in providing tax and accounting services to family-owned businesses. She performs monthly accounting and bookkeeping services for clients.

Outside The Office
