Doug brings extensive experience and a strong commitment to the leadership of the firm's Nonprofit Practice. He provides assurance and advisory services to a diverse range of nonprofit organizations, including cultural and arts organizations, health and human services providers, educational institutions, environmental organizations, youth development programs, private foundations, and professional associations.

Doug also co-leads the firm's Accounting and Bookkeeping Services group, which provides outsourced accounting, bookkeeping, and advisory services to for-profit businesses across a variety of industries as well as nonprofit organizations. Working closely with business owners, executives, finance teams, and boards, Doug and the team help clients strengthen their financial operations through timely accounting and financial reporting, budgeting and forecasting, internal control and process improvements, and ongoing financial advisory support.

Throughout his career, Doug has provided financial statement and compliance audits, internal control evaluations, operational assessments, and a broad range of advisory services. His experience across assurance, outsourced accounting, and advisory services gives him a practical perspective on the financial, operational, and reporting challenges facing organizations.

In addition to his client and practice leadership responsibilities, Doug oversees the firm's Quality Control for Assurance Services, helping to maintain the firm's commitment to high standards of quality, technical excellence, and professional service.

Outside The Office

Doug resides in Melrose with his wife, Jeanne. Family is an important part of his life, and Hilton Head Island remains a favorite destination for Doug and his family after many years of vacations there. For him, it is a place to step away from the pressures of everyday life and simply enjoy time together.

In his free time, Doug enjoys golfing, playing tennis, and hiking in the Fells. He is also committed to giving back to the community and has a long history of involvement with
