“ A ‘perfect’ day to me would be out in the warm, fresh air up in the White Mountains.

Emily joined the firm in 2015 and works alongside the Director of Marketing & Development on a variety of initiatives, including marketing, employee retention, and business development. She focuses on digital strategy, brand consistency, graphic design, social media, and managing website content. Emily helps bring creative ideas to life in ways that support the firm’s growth through targeted outreach, strengthening client connections, and helping employees feel more engaged and connected.

Outside The Office

Emily lives in New Hampshire with her husband, son, and daughter. In her spare time, she loves to spend as much time outdoors as she can, is an avid reader, and enjoys weekends away up in North Conway, NH, with her family.
