> I would love to travel to Scotland and spend time visiting the castles.

Kimberly started at Johnson O'Connor in 2018 as a staff accountant working in both audit and tax. In July 2019, she joined the Client Accounting Services team to assist in providing bookkeeping and accounting services to clients in a wide range of industries.

Outside The Office

Kimberly enjoys cooking and spending time with friends. In the winter, she spends several weekends skiing in Maine and New Hampshire with her family. Other weekends are spent sleeping in, enjoying a Starbucks latté, and reading a good book.
