“ At Karaoke Night, I would’ve sung ‘I’m A Believer’ in the style of Smash Mouth.

Mary joined the Firm in June 2025 as a Principal in the Individuals, Trusts & Estates Department. She brings 35 years of experience in public accounting, with a focus on taxation. Mary spent the first 12 years of her career working for tax attorneys and, most recently, spent 18 years at a regional public accounting firm. She has assisted high net worth individuals, corporations, S corporations and partnership clients with compliance obligations, tax planning, and research projects. Mary also supports clients in responding to federal and state correspondence and resolving tax issues. She is a resource for clients required to disclose foreign assets under the Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR) and the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA). Mary enjoys supporting the professional development of colleagues and sharing her expertise across various areas of taxation.

Outside The Office

Mary lives in Chelmsford with her beloved dog, Murphy. In her free time, she and her adult children enjoy exploring Boston—whether it’s celebratory dinners in the North End, brewery hopping in the Seaport, or catching a comedy show. A proud Irish American, Mary loves celebrating her heritage. Annually, she and her siblings host more than 30 guests for a corned beef and cabbage dinner in honor of St. Patrick’s Day. She also enjoys walking and playing catch with Murphy, attending book club, and tending to her lawn and garden.
