“ My favorite book is A Storm of Swords in the Game of Thrones series by George R.R. Martin. I will never be able to attend another wedding without thinking of this book!

Michael joined the firm in May 2021 as a Principal and the Head of Retirement Plan Services. He has spent the last 20+ years designing and administering retirement plans for hundreds of businesses in New England. He helps businesses navigate the complex IRS rules and regulations to design a retirement plan that meets the objectives of the business owners and provides a vehicle for the employees to meet their retirement goals.

Outside The Office

Michael spends his time away from work with his wife and two sons. On the weekend, you can always find him at the local hockey rink, baseball field, track, or curling club, cheering his son's athletic teams. In the rare instances he is home, you can find him on the couch with his wife, fighting for control over the TV remote.
