“ My favorite vacation spot is Colorado. I love being in the mountains and doing anything outdoors – hiking, backpacking, camping, mountain biking, and running.

Nick joined the firm in November 2019 as a staff accountant. He is currently a supervisor in the tax department. He prepares and reviews returns for individuals, businesses, and trusts as well as does tax research, planning, and other projects as assigned. Prior to joining the firm, Nick worked at a regional accounting firm doing various attest, tax, consulting, and bookkeeping engagements.

Outside The Office

Nick lives with his family in Newton, MA. In his free time, he enjoys watching sports, hanging out with friends, running (he has completed two marathons and over a dozen half marathons) and volunteering with his Boy Scout troop.
