“ If I had to choose a superpower to have, I’d choose the ability to turn back time. More so from a personal standpoint, not professionally, so I could savor the moments watching my children grow up.

Rachel joined the firm in 2013 and has over 15 years of experience providing accounting, auditing, and business advisory services to clients. Rachel is the head of the firm’s Attest Department, as well as the leader of the employee benefit plan audit practice. Her experience ranges across a variety of industries, including professional services, wholesale, manufacturing, and other privately held businesses.

Outside The Office

Rachel lives in Peabody with her husband James, their three children, and their dog. In her free time, you’ll likely find her at a soccer field, hockey rink or gymnastics competition with her kids. Rachel also serves as the Treasurer for the Peabody Area Chamber of Commerce and sits on the advisory board for career services at her alma mater, Salem State University.
