“ Even after multiple visits, Japan remains my favorite vacation spot. The captivating food and stunning scenery make it irresistible, compelling people to return time and time again.

Sally joined the firm in September of 2020 as a tax supervisor. She comes with four years of experience in the one of the Big Four accounting firms. She provides tax services to business and individual clients. Her client base includes technology companies, pharmaceutical companies, venture capital companies, real estate companies, and high-net worth individuals.

Outside The Office

Sally enjoys watching movies, traveling, exploring nature, and spending time with her family and friends during her free time.
