> I love to travel and explore new places. I have almost reached my goal of visiting all 50 states – only 4 to go! I've done some traveling outside of the country too – my favorite so far has been New Zealand!

Shannon joined the firm in 2015, bringing experience from both national and regional firms. Shannon is a member of the Tax Department and works primarily on tax compliance, planning, and research for individuals, trusts, and estates.

Outside The Office

Shannon lives with her husband Dave and their three daughters in Windham, NH. They enjoy being outside and traveling to visit family and friends. In her free time, Shannon also enjoys spending time with friends, reading, baking, and music.
